

The Foundation in a Glance

Prince Jamal bin Abdurrahman Al-Noaimi Charity Foundation is the first-Arab charitable foundation incorporated in Belgium as per Royal Decree No. 0823.843.269 signed by the King of Belgium, King Albert the Second.

Among the foundation's objectives is to serve the world's poor, needy, special needs, affected individuals, women and children, contribution to the minimization of epidemics and endemics and help during natural and man related disasters.

Provide assistance to the world's poor

- Provide relief services in case of emergency for afflicted people
- Erection of vocational, technical and educational to serve people
- Launching projects that elevate standards of living for individuals
- Offering scholarships for students
- Launching awareness programs and social services for women
- Provide supporting programs for child protection and care in the third world
- Prepare, develop and publish researches & studies and investigations related to the foundation goals and award such researchers and investigators. Provide books, printing, publishing and free and non-free distribution of books, circulars,